PRINTED & PUBLISHED BY C. CLARKE, 18 Little Hamilton st.

PREFACE.

The Publisher has much pleasure in bringing before the Public CLARKE'S MOTHERWELL DIRECTORY, as a work of this kind will be found useful for that rising and prosperous Town, within a short period its progress has been very rapid; in 1871, Motherwell had a population of 6,943, In 1896, 22,649, The increase in 25 years 15,706.

In the first portion of this Directory is given an Alphabetical list of names and addresses page 1 to 89, next follows a Street Directory page 89 to 130, then a Business Directory page 131 to 146, also a list of Town Council, Dalziel Parish Council and other local information.

No effort has been spared to render it as complete as possible, The Publisher however do not hold himself responsible for any error or omission, and desires to express his thanks for the generous support which has been accorded to this Work, and acknowledging the kindness of gentlemen connected with the Public Offices for supplying much useful information, for which he tenders his warmest thanks.

C. Clarke,
